

Partition functions for locally stable secondary structures